SUBJECT No. 331.

Admission of Lingayet students to Sanskrit school.

Mr B Nanjundaradhya, Nanjangud Municipality

Summary of discussion.—Lingayet students are not admitted to the Sanskrit school at Nanjangud. There are many ancient works to show that Lingayets in former days were well acquainted with Vedas, etc. It is therefore prayed that Lingayet students whose optional language is Sanskrit may be admitted to Sanskrit schools.

Mr. K. H. Ramaiya.—Not only Lingayets, but people of all classes must be admitted to the Sanskrit schools and colleges.

Reply of Government.—Noted.
